CAMP OBJECTIVE

The Misericordia University Football Camp is a non-contact camp for high school student-athletes entering grades 9-12. The objective is to provide prospects the opportunity to be evaluated and coached by the Misericordia Football Staff.

Head Football Coach, Mark Ross was named the first head coach of Misericordia Football in January, 2011. A 1991 graduate of Penn State, Ross spent the previous ten seasons at Ithaca College. He served as the Defensive Coordinator from 2007-2010. Prior to assuming that role he coached the Linebackers in 2005 and the Defensive Line from 2000-2004. During his tenure at Ithaca, the Bombers won five Empire 8 championships and made six post season appearances. Prior to Ithaca College, Ross spent four years at East Stroudsburg University in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference.
